

CAMEL IS EMBLEM; DRY'S RIVAL OF ROOSTER AND DONKEY

GEN. SIR DOUGLAS HAIG

The non-militarist, camel will be the emblem of the Prohibition party and Prohibitionists will turn their footsteps toward the white house after the convention at St. Paul, Minn., July 18, according to Hinshaw, national chairman of the convention. The camel, instead of the rooster or donkey, will be over the portals of the white house in 1920, he says.

—o—o—o— HOW THEY DO IT

Two married women were having a chat, and, as usual, the conversation veered around to the expense of living.

"It's really awful how the rise in prices has affected us!" said one sadly. "Why, do you know that my bills for clothes this year are exactly double what they were last year?"

"Goodness!" gasped the other. "I don't see how your husband can afford it."

"He can't," replied the first calmly. "But, then, he couldn't afford it last year, so what's the difference?"—Argonaut.

RED CROSS TO HELP CRUSADE ON INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Washington, July 8.—Government and municipal forces fighting the infantile paralysis epidemic in New York were reinforced today by the American Red Cross. Responding to an appeal by New York health officials, Miss Jane A. Delano, head of the nurses' department, started mobilizing Red Cross nurses to prevent a possible nation-wide epidemic and to check the disease in New York.

Miss Delano will leave tomorrow morning for New York to confer with leaders in the fight against the malady. The Red Cross now has 250 nurses in New York, with five base hospitals, maintained on account of the Mexican trouble. This will make difficult the problem of obtaining nurses in New York city. Nurses in other parts of the state and in other states will be called on if necessary.

Suggestions were made today that it might be advisable to start an isolation camp for paralysis victims and to keep them in tents on the outskirts until the epidemic has been stamped out.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 8.—Infantile paralysis appeared in Indiana today when cases were reported at Garrett, Burnett and Mishawaka. The three cases were quarantined.

—o—o—o— ARREST "MAN IN THE CASE"

Rudolph Winter, 22 years old, was arrested yesterday and admitted he was responsible for the condition of Marie Dominick, 18. The girl tried to commit suicide after the "man in the case" had abandoned her and her father had turned her out when she confessed she was to become a mother. She is in a serious condition.

Winter, who lives at 1434 Cornell st., said he was willing to marry the girl, but his parents objected.
